

Chaiyuth Priyasith

passed away on January 31st, 2004

Chaiyuth Priyasith one of the few great Masters of Thai massage in the 20th century and the teacher of many Thai massage therapists, including the late Asokananda, passed away in Chiang Mai on January 31st, 2004 while he was dancing in the company of a group of his students.

His profound understanding of the flow of energy has been an inspiration for many now well-established practitioners of Thai massage. With his passing, we have lost one of the deeply spiritual teachers of our modality. His work will live on forever in his friends and students.

May his spirit find liberation.
